

Coverage is the replicate-weighted mean. Gray rows are deterministic samples of aligned molecules; PSI and informative counts use all classified primary alignments.